JENA & JESSE

Jena ran a perfect Open course to capture 1st place at the Bernese Mountain Dog Club of America show on September 19th. Jesse, not to be left out, captured a 2nd place in Novice, a 4th place in Novice Jumpers then rounded out the exciting weekend by adding another Jumpers leg on Sunday.

On Saturday, October 3rd at the Rand Park Agility Show, Jena earned her third leg and Open Agility Title - Title # 9 for Jena.

From Heather King

Thank you to Cindy Pakenas, Ed Herdes and Ingrid H. for their help September 13 tracking event. It was a great success and we had 5 dogs obtain their Tracking Titles. I am trying to coordinate holding a VST event in 1999 as well. The club got glowing thanks from all who attended/participated. Thanks!!!

"Baggage"

Baggage

(A Poem Dedicated to Rescue)

Now that I'm home, bathed, settled and fed
 All nicely tucked into my new warm bed
 I would like to open my baggage
 Lest I forget.
 There is so much to carry -
 so much to regret.

Hmm... Yes there it is, right on top
 Let's unpack Loneliness, Heartache and Loss,
 And there by my leash hides Fear and Shame.
 As I look on these things I tried so hard to leave
 I still have to unpack my baggage called Pain.

I loved them, the others, the ones who left me
 But I wasn't good enough - for they didn't want me
 Will you add to my baggage?
 Will you help me unpack?
 Or will you look at my things
 And take me right back?

Do you have time to help me unpack?
 To put away my baggage,
 To never re-pack?
 I pray that you do - I'm so tired you see,
 But I do come with baggage
 Will you still want me?

Condolences

Our sympathy goes out to Rick Cox who lost his lab Lacey on September 29th after a short illness. She was the dog that he started with at Fox Valley. She was retired from obedience after receiving a CD. Lacey would have been 11 years old this week. She was the second dog that they lost within 6 weeks. We'll miss a good old friend!

Membership Meeting

Membership Meeting Highlights October 7, 1998

Meeting brought to order at 7:40 p.m.

Carolyn Pearson (Secretary) the September Meeting minutes were approved as published. Several items of correspondence were read.

Michelle Richter-Farrell (First Vice-President) nothing to report EXCEPT that Christian Storm Farrell was born Saturday, September 19th. He weighed 8 lbs. 12 oz..

Cheryl Lewis (Director of Training) reported that the graduation is Tuesday, October 13th. The fifth and final Beginners classes session for this year will begin on October 22nd. That day is also our final correction clinic for the year. The puppy begins on October 29th.

Cheryl stated that she is still in need of the following instructors:

		7:00	8:00	9:00
Beginners'	Primary Instructor		X
	Assistant Instructor	X	X
Advanced Beginners'	Primary Instructor	X		not
	Assistant Instructor	X		offered

The ring set-up for the next session will be similar to the trial ring set-up.

On October 29th, we will have a Halloween party. Instructors will be asked to encourage the students to participate in the Parade of Costumes to be held between 7:50 and 8:10 p.m.. Anyone who would like to join in the festivities, may bring a snack to share. The club will provide soda.

Will Short (Trial Chairperson) reported that the following assistance is still needed for our November 8th Obedience Trial:

- ◆ A Grounds Chairperson - see or call Will Short
- ◆ Stewards - see or call Mike and Debbie Kovacevich or sign-up on poster board at training
- ◆ Ironing - help press the 12 steward-table tablecloths and awards-table tablecloths
- ◆ Kitchen - see or call Susan Yee

Will asked for the opinion of the club members present whether a heeldown should be held after the trial this year. It was decided that there probably not be enough time and will not be held this year.

Will also announced that the stewards' lunches will be paid for by the club. As last year, there will be a maximum amount of $3.50, unless it is determined from Susan Yee that the food prices have increased. In order to alleviate the problem encountered last year of stewards who were not able to eat, it was decided that Carolyn Pearson (Hospitality food must be held for our stewards.

Taffy Wille (Trial Secretary) reported that as of today, we have received 224 entries, out of the allowable maximum of 272 entries. She stated that we are ahead of the amount received at the 1997 trial as of this same time. The trial's closing date is October 21st. Due to Jean Airey's absence from the trial, a slight trophy change has occurred. This modification will be announced in the judging program, per AKC regulations. Judy Anderson has volunteered to act as the "trial photographer" during Jean's absence.

Taffy announced that the following volunteers would be needed:

Day	Date	Time	Purpose	Comments
Friday	October 23rd	Unknown	Catalog Proofreading	Pizza will be provided.
Sunday	October 25th	Unknown	Envelope stuffing	Entry Acknowledgements

Once she has an idea of who can help and what time they're available, she'll contact the individuals for a firm time.

The deadline for placing catalog ads has passed - a total of $515 was collected for the ads.

Taffy extended thanks to Kay Weber for her alertness. Kay notified Taffy that the emergency vet we had listed in the premium list was incorrect. It has been corrected in the judging program.

Club members who have volunteered to personally provide a trial trophy may give those trophies to Taffy Wille at training, if Helen Castellano is not present.

Taffy reported that she has received AKC approval to amend the trial to be dedicated to the memory of Jim Benson.

Dave Lewis (Waggin' Tales Editor) announced that the next deadline is Monday, October 12, 1998, although Sunday would be better. He also stated that if there are any club members who are not receiving their Waggin' Tales in the requested format (either e-mail or USPS mail), should see Dave or Judy Anderson. Judy Anderson uses the membership database to create the mailing labels for the newsletter.

Advice for the Puppy in Your Life

VISITORS: Quickly determine which guest is afraid of dogs. Charge across the room, barking loudly and leap playfully on this person. If the human falls down on the floor and starts crying, lick its face and growl gently to show your concern.

BARKING: Because you are a dog, you are expected to bark. So bark--- a lot. Your owners will be very happy to hear you protecting their house. Especially late at night while they are sleeping safely in their beds. There is no more secure feeling for a human than to keep waking up in the Peggy Sue Seehafer (Graduation Chairperson), reported by Cheryl Lewis. Everything is set for the next graduation on October 13th. The final graduation will be Tuesday, December 22nd. More volunteers might be needed, we could be offering as many as six beginners' classes during the fifth session.

Judy Anderson (Membership Chairperson) reported that the 1998/1999 rosters are available for pick-up. Any rosters not picked up after next week, will be mailed with the club members' Waggin' Tales. We currently have a total of 161 members, without the three applications to be presented at tonight's meeting.

Membership Meeting

Judy read a list of three new membership applications. Jerry D'Aprile was present at the meeting. Taffy Wille made a motion to accept the list as read. The motion was seconded by Will Short and approved by all without any discussion.

Jerry stated that they have 2 Labrador Retrievers. He has recently retired, but works part-time at a dog groomers.

Tracey Mohr (Public Education Liaison), nothing to report EXCEPT that Spencer Wilson Mohr was born Monday, Sept. 28 at high noon. He weighed 6 lbs. 7 oz and was 18.5 inches long. Everyone is doing great.

Helen Castellano (Match Chairperson) reported that they are in need of stewards for the October 22nd match. She stated that she is also in need of judges - Rick Cox volunteered.

Helen also announced that Linda Benson has stated that she will not be doing the match sign-up table in 1999. Anyone who wishes to volunteer for that position should see Linda (for more information on what the job entails) or Helen or Suzan Scott (Match co-chairpeople). It was also suggested that the instructors be reminded to ask their students for correction clinic volunteers.

Jean Airey (Publicity), reported by Carolyn Pearson.

seminar conducted by the Beacon News had on "how to get your material in our newspaper." Jean spoke to the photographer who was there. He indicated that he thought they would be interested in coming out to the club and doing their own photographs of "all the dogs parading around." Jean explained that there would only be a single dog at a time doing something in a ring, but that they would be welcome to come. Since the initial contact, she has not heard from him (in spite of a call to him the next day).

All the publicity has gone out to local newspapers. If any club member sees something in print, they are encouraged to save a copy for Jean.

Another mailing to vets and pet shops is planned. Anyone having any suggestions for places to send to, please give them to Taffy Wille. In view of the increased competition from PetsMart, we will be trying to emphasize some things we do that they may not do. Jean also stated that she is willing to make posters with phone numbers on them if any club member knows a place that would be willing and able to post them and is willing to take the poster there.

Nancy Pederson (Historian) asked that if any club members sees something in print, please save a copy for Nancy Pederson for the club scrapbook.

Joan Payne (Awards Dinner Chairperson) addressed the published Award's committee's report for the suggested changes. She stated that the more opinions that were expressed, the more she found them to be different - regardless of who was speaking. There were three areas

(More) Puppy Advice

THE ART OF SNIFFING: Humans like to be sniffed. Everywhere. It is your duty, as the family dog, to accommodate them.

HOLES: Rather than digging a BIG hole in the middle of the yard and upsetting your human, dig a lot of smaller holes all over the yard so they won't notice. If you arrange a little pile of dirt on one side of each hole, maybe they'll hink it's gophers. There are never enough holes in the ground. Strive daily to do your part to help correct this problem.

DOORS: The area directly in front of a door is always reserved for the family dog to sleep.

differed from the recommendations of the Board.

Those three areas were:

- ◆ The type of recognition to be given to UKC title earners
- ◆ The type of award to be offered to the AKC Agility title earners
- ◆ Who should be listed in the Annual Banquet's program

Before those differences were discussed, the initial discussion was whether there were enough members present to approve the recommended changes to the awards. It was decided after much discussion, that in order to avoid prolonging the situation any longer, the members present at the meeting was sufficient. It had been the hope of the Award's committee and the Board that this was to have been resolved at the beginning of the year, rather than towards the end. After further discussion between the Award's committee, the Board members and the club members, it was decided that the Award's committee should make the recommendation. However, the Award's committee felt that the final recommendation must be Board presenting it for general membership approval. Joan stated that although the Award's committee may not agree with the Board's recommendation, they would support the Board's recommendations.

Still More Puppy Advice

DINING ETIQUETTE: Always sit under the table at dinner, especially when there are guests, so you can clean up any food that falls on the floor. It's also a good time to practice your sniffing.

HOUSEBREAKING: Housebreaking is very important to humans, so break as much of the house as possible.

GOING FOR WALKS: Rules of the road: When out for a walk with your master or mistress, never go to the bathroom on your own lawn.

COUCHES: It is perfectly permissible to lie on the new couch after all your humans have gone to bed.

PLAYING: If you lose your footing while chasing a ball or stick, use the flower bed to absorb your fall so you don't injure yourself.

CHASING CATS: When chasing cats, make sure you never-- quite--- catch them. It spoils all the fun.

CHEWING: Make a contribution to the fashion industry. ...Eat a shoe.

As was published in the Award's committee report in the September Waggin' Tales, the type of award offered to club members earning an UKC title differed between the Award committee and the Board. The recommendation made by the Board (of offering an engravable plaque) was derived from several factors. Some of those factors are:

- ◆ Cost - currently, the club is doing well, but let's be a little cautious of over-spending
- ◆ Interest Level - Allow for some time to get a better idea of how many club members will be applying for UKC awards
- ◆ Start Small - It is easier to upgrade

A poll of the Board members present resulted in the following decision, the award offered for UKC title earners would be an engravable plaque. The following Board members agreed to stay with the original recommendation: Judy Anderson, Cheryl Lewis, Carolyn Pearson, Will Short and Taffy Wille. Cindy Pakenas stated that she did not agreed with the original Board's recommendation.

The next item discussed was the type of award to be offered

Membership Meeting

to the AKC Agility title earners, either a patch or a certificate. Based on the information available at the time, the Board recommended that a certificate be offered. However, after the discussion of expenses, it was decided that as long as the cost variation was not unreasonable, either option should be offered to the club members. The following Board members agreed with the Award's committee's original recommendation of offering a choice: Judy Anderson, Cheryl Lewis, Cindy Pakenas, Carolyn Pearson, Will Short and Taffy Wille.

Nancy Pederson made a motion to accept the Award's committee's published recommendations with the changes discussed at the meeting. Helen Castellano seconded the motion. Without any further discussion, the vote was as follows:

- ◆ Approved - All members present, except:
- ◆ Opposed - 1
- ◆ Abstentions - 0

It was decided that the discussion of who should be listed in the Annual Banquet's program did not have to be addressed immediately. The Award's committee members and the Board members will discuss it during the December Board meeting.

Heather King (Tracking Secretary), reported by Cindy Pakenas. Five of the eight TD trackers passed. Cindy stated that the test was very well run and that Heather did a great job as the Tracking Secretary. Thanks to Heather for another successful tracking test.

Regarding Awards

Awards Report

To the FVDTC members,

The following is the list of awards that are to be offered. This list was discussed at the October 7th Membership Meeting and received the approval of the club members present. The only remaining item that needs further discussion between the Award's committee and the Board is the Title Recognition topic. That will be discussed at the December Board meeting.

For a complete report of the discussion, please refer to the October 7th Membership Meeting Highlights.

Obedience

The AKC and CKC awards will remain the same as last year.

Additionally, we will recognize obedience titles offered by other registries with a 5" x 7" plaque with room for additional nameplates. Club members would also need to fulfill the other award requirements.

Tracking

In order to avoid duplication of awards for the same title and continue to honor the memory of Aldythe Comstock and Ruth Anderson, some modifications have been made to the Tracking awards. The Award's committee and the Board wishes to insure both memorial awards are secure now and for the future.

Tracking Dog (TD) - the award will BE the Aldythe Comstock Memorial Award with selection from the list of awards or

I GOT MY RIGHTS !!

I GOT MY RIGHTS!!!!

(Yeah, but you keep forgetting RESPONSIBILITIES come along with them.)

By Dorie Crowe

MB-F, Inc. April, 1998 Newsletter
(reprinted with permission)

While conducting business in the office and away at shows we continually hear a phrase, with some variation, along the lines of, "We have a right to expect....", or, "We have a right to have...."

Here are a few thoughts on this subject:

"We have a RIGHT to expect a decent show site."

Yes, you do. However, you also have the RESPONSIBILITY of helping take care of that show site.

Begin by parking where the club has designated. They have conferred with the site owners/managers, with their own parking committees and they have drawn a plan that best utilizes the site under various conditions. Remember if the grounds are torn up EVERYONE loses - the club may have to bear the burden of costly repairs and we may lose yet another show site.

Keep your grooming areas clean during the day and leave it clean when you pack up to leave. When you move into a site it's been cleaned in anticipation of your being there; when you leave it should be as it was when you arrived. Next time you attend a show look around in the areas that have been vacated in the building or under the tent...or look at your own objectively during the day. That chalk comes out, dryers blow it all over the people passing by or into the next set-up and it ends up floating across the site in a thin cloud or in a white pile on the floor which is then stepped in and tracked all over the site. The scissors and clippers also come out and then hair begins to blow as well.

Those handy things called trash bags, brooms, dustpans, etc., are a big help and should be part of the equipment on your rig or on your list of show supplies you take to each show. It's a common courtesy to clean up after yourself - if you drop something pick it up and throw it away in the proper receptacle; if you spill something, wipe it up - you know, you might be the one who slips in it. If you throw bait halfway across the ring you should retrieve it at the end of your class. The next exhibitor in the ring may not appreciate that his dog is constantly after that piece of bait you left in his path.

This also extends to your dog. Just because Phideaux wants to lift his leg on something doesn't mean he has to do so. You control your dog's actions. There are appropriate places to exercise your dogs. Trash containers on the indoor floor of a site are not the appropriate place. Ring equipment is not the appropriate place. The club's flowers in the ring are not the appropriate place. Would you feel differently if it were your job to pick up, pack up or empty these items at the end of the show? And, if your dog eliminates in the traffic aisles at indoor or outdoor shows, you should be cleaning up after it - or, at the very least, calling for clean-up. Have a look around at outdoor shows. There are children everywhere - walking AND sitting on the ground. Is this where you would want YOUR children? Is this what you want to step in yourself?

"We have a RIGHT to expect good judging."

Yes, you do. However, you have the RESPONSIBILITY of breeding dogs to the Breed Standard and showing what you believe to be your best stock.

When you enter you are asking for his/her opinion. And, in most cases it's just a difference of opinion when you lose - and lose, you have no legitimate gripe. If you are an agent and your prime concern is collecting your fee when you know the judge is not right for your dog, you have no legitimate gripe.

Under the present system AKC has for approving judges, they must have read the Breed Standard, taken a test, attended seminars, had an interview and been observed judging. If you have observed a judge in the ring and you do not like anything about that judge, isn't it really a no-brainer? Just as you expect the show- giving club to do some research on their panel; YOU have the responsibility of doing that same research.

"We have the RIGHT to expect fair treatment."

Yes, you do. However, you have the RESPONSIBILITY of treating everyone else in a fair manner - from the gate attendant to the parking attendant to the novice who asks you a question, to the judge in your ring, to the person in the ring standing next to you, etc.

That novice who comes to you at a show to get information or guidance should be given help that will point them in the right direction. How many times have we heard someone say, after a question has been posed, "What a novice!?" Well, folks, we were all novices at some point in our life in dogs. It's up to us to get the best new talent we can into the sport to insure its future. That novice is going to be breeding dogs one day - maybe your breed. That novice may be a judge some day; may be a club member or a show chairman some day. What kind of information do you want that person to have coming into the sport? What's the impression of the sport you want to imprint on them? If you want that person to become a constructive force in this sport, the time is NOW, when they ask you a question.

And, don't forget the show officials. They want to have the best show they can have; smooth running, with little or no problems, where, at the end of the day, exhibitors can say they had a good time. Think before you go at them yelling, screaming and threatening. Present your problem in a calm, clear, factual way. If there's anything that can be done to remedy the situation, they'll be glad to do so. And, if they are in the middle of something, for example a superintendent marking a catalog, try to wait until they finish the breed or get to a place they can comfortably stop. Marking takes concentration - you wouldn't want us to finish the wrong dog or not catch an incorrect marking now, would you?

If you think the club's got big problems at their show become a member of the club and offer solutions to those problems. Help to make it better than ever. Most clubs work very hard and do their very best. Most clubs also need and desperately want new members with constructive ideas who will WORK to help them have a better show and help continue their charity work and community service. So get out there and be part of the solution to those problems you find you encounter at shows.

"We have a RIGHT to bring our children along."

Yes, you do. However, you have the RESPONSIBILITY of looking after those children.

Discussions should take place with children before they come to a show on: the appropriate way of approaching a dog (after getting the owner's permission, of course); not putting fingers into crates of strange dogs; not putting their faces into a strange dog's face; not running through traffic aisles, leaping over ring equipment, jumping off bleacher seats, etc.

We're sure you've been in attendance at shows where it looked like the parents saw a sign that said "Dog Show," so they dropped off their kids and said they'd be back later in the day to pick them up. You will be the first to be up in arms if something does happen to your child as a result of someone else's such a public event so they will not get harmed.

I GOT MY RIGHTS!!

"We have the RIGHT to take our dog...."

Yes, you do. However, you have the RESPONSIBILITY of NOT having him/her in areas that are off limits.

If a hotel/motel does not want your dog in the room, it should not be in the room. And, if the place is kind enough to allow dogs you should not be bathing it in the room or trimming it in the room. And Poopsie certainly should not be left in the room unattended if it's not in a crate. Even if the dog is a perfect lady or gentleman, remember hotel/motel personnel come into rooms when you are not there for a myriad of reasons and they are not around show dogs all the time. If Poopsie escapes from the room or "defends the territory" neither you nor the hotel/motel will be very happy.

If the motel or club has restricted dogs from being in certain areas, that DOES include your dog. When clubs do this it is generally because their site has advised them this rule must be in effect - and it may have come into effect because of the abuses of prior years.

Usually, restrictions include lobby areas or restrooms, areas under construction or remodeling, or areas not included as part of the show site, which are pretty self-explanatory. Site managers/owners do not want urine stains and hair on their fresh new carpeted lobby and they sure as heck don't want dogs bathed in the restroom lavatories (nor do they want dog food remnants clogging up the drains). And they don't want dogs exercising in their nicely landscaped walkways.

Generally, dog folks are a caring, rule-abiding group of people. The problem is that it only takes a couple of inconsiderate people to give the whole dog show population a bad name or get us kicked out of another site or another hotel/motel. Just a little thought and consideration would go such a long way in making ourselves and our canine
