IN LOVING MEMORY

U-CDX, U-AG1 Penny's Roseanna, UDX, OA, FDX, Delta Society Pet Partner

January 13, 1988 - June 27, 2000

My Wild Irish Rose, you made me laugh and you made me crazy. You were taken from me so quickly, but then you never did anything slowly. You leave me with a broken heart and a million happy memories. You really knew how to live - what a ride we had together. Thanks for taking me along.

JUST MY DOG

He's just my dog. He is my other eyes that can see above the clouds; my other ears that hear above the winds.

He has told me more than a thousand times that I am his reason for being — by the way he rests against my leg, m=by the way he thumps his tail at my smallest smile, by the way he shows his hurt when I leave without taking him. (I think it makes him sick with worry when he is not along to care for me).

When I am wrong, he is delighted to forgive.
When I am angry he clowns to make me smile.
When I am happy, he is joy unbounded.

When I am a fool, he ignores it. When I succeed, he brags. Without him, I am only another person. With him, I am all powerful.

He has taught me the meaning of devotion is loyalty itself. With him, I know the secret comfort and a private peace. He has brought me understanding where before I was ignorant. His head on my knee can heal my human hurts. His presence by my side is protection against my fears of dark an unknown things.

He has promised to wait for me .. Whenever .. Wherever .. In case I need him and I expect I will, as I always have.

Who is he? — He's just — MY DOG!

BRAGS AND OTHER GOOD STUFF

Max (Kent Hildebrand)
 Novice Agility 04/14/2000 German Shepherd Club 100
 Max took first place in Novice A Standard class and got his title

Sassi (Trudy Kimm)
 U-CD SMACK-DAB 196.5
 After a several-year break, I finally managed to get Sassi entered in a UKC trial to finish her U-CD. She earned a first place to get her title - and keeps telling me she wants to retire, before I find yet another club to get more titles on her.

IF YOU CAN

If you can get going without pep pills,
 If you can always be cheerful, ignoring aches and pains,
 If you can resist complaining and boring people with
 your troubles,
 If you can eat the same food everyday and be grateful
 for it,
 If you can understand when your loved ones are too busy to give you any time,
 If you can overlook it when those you love take it out on you when, through no fault of yours, something goes wrong,
 If you can take criticism and blame without resentment,
 If you can ignore a friend's limited education and never correct him,
 If you can resist treating a rich friend better than a poor friend,
 If you can face the world without lies and deceit,
 If you can conquer tension without medical help,
 If you can relax without liquor,
 If you can sleep without the aid of drugs,
 If you can say honestly that deep in your heart you have no prejudice against creed, color, religion or politics,
 Then, my friend, you are almost as good as your dog.

TAKING CARE OF A CUT PAD

Three weeks ago, during some last minute preparation for a hunt test, Peggy cut her pad pretty badly. I washed it with her clean drinking water. Then rinsed it with the saline solution (for contacts) in my F.A. kit. Then, unknowingly, I made a big mistake. I sprinkled "quick-stop" on the cut. Yes she cried but I thought it was worth it. I bandaged it, and since the bleeding had nearly stopped, made the 30 minute drive to my regular vet. I had read that an extremely tight bandage can do great harm, so I used caution here.

Once with the vet I learned the first two steps were correct, but "Quick stop" kills tissue, and now stitches were out of the question. Well, I've also heard stitching a pad is uncommon these days, but I was distressed I had made a big mistake.

Result: Any future cuts will be handled this way until I learn differently:

Prior to the vet visit and antibiotics

- Clean water, then saline solution ( for contacts)
- A non-stick telfa pad, and bandaged firmly.
- Keep the foot clean, and dry (wrapped) and rested, for 3 days.
- For another week, wrap the foot whenever she leaves the house.

It's a great deal of work, but she never went backwards so it is totally worth it.

PUT YOUR NEWS IN WAGGIN' TALES

If you have news or announcements you would like to share with the club, put it in the Waggin' Tales.

There are a few guidelines to follow to ensure that your message is presented in the way you would like:

Submit your articles to:

David Lewis
Waggin' Tales
232 Mistwood Lane
North Aurora, IL 60542
(630) 897-4267
waggintales@fvdtc.org

Plain text E-Mail is the best way to get your article included. Attachments in Rich Text Format will work also. Typed letters and faxes are OK, too, but handwritten notes are the most likely to result in errors.

Always include your name and a phone number with your article.

What Gets Included

Waggin' Tales is the primary means of communication for the Board to the membership, so announcements from the Board and meeting minutes get highest priority. Next are news, brags and stories from the membership. If space permits, dog-related classified ads and for-sale items from members will be included.

I am always interested in your comments (both good and bad) and suggestions for improving Waggin' Tales.
